

Table of Contents

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Introduction	i
Purpose of Research	i
Method	ii
Findings and Analysis	ii
Conclusions	iii
Recommendations	iii
Policy Change	iii
Language	v
Other Barriers	v
Further Research	v
Community Action	vi
1. INTRODUCTION	1
1.1 Purpose of Research	2
2. METHODS	2
3. LIMITATIONS OF THE STUDY	5
4. LITERATURE REVIEW	6
4.1 Introduction	6
4.2 Historical Development of Theories and Research	7
4.2.1 Anxiety Neurosis	7
4.2.2 Stress	7
4.2.3 Behaviour Psychology	8
4.3 The Traumatic Principle	8
4.4 The Three E's and PTSD	8
4.5 More on Symptoms	9
4.6 Current Definition and Diagnosis	10
4.7 Victimization	11
4.8 Physical and Sexual Abuse Among Immigrants and Refugees	12
4.9 The Physiology of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder	13
4.10 Treatment/Intervention	14
4.11 Summary	16
5. DATA FINDINGS	17
5.1 PTSD: The Women's Stories	17
5.1.1 Experiences with Service Providers	22
5.2 Experiences of Service Providers	24
5.3 Experiences of Physicians and Psychiatrists	27
5.4 Sources of Support and Assistance	28
5.5 Barriers to Women's Healing	30
5.5.1 Language	30
5.5.2 Lack of knowledge of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder and Not Reaching Out	31
5.6 Issues of Aboriginal and First Nations Women	32

6. ANALYSIS OF DATA	33
6.1 Introduction	33
6.2 Language	34
6.3 Education and Awareness	34
6.4 Trauma and the Experiences of Settlement and Integration	35
6.5 Identifying and Understanding the Immigrant and Refugee Women	36
6.6 Knowledge, Understanding and Intervention	36
7. CONCLUSIONS	37
8. RECOMMENDATIONS	39
8.1 Policy Change	39
8.2 Language	40
8.3 Other Barriers	41
8.4 Further Research	41
8.5 Community Action	41
GLOSSARY OF TERMS	42
REFERENCE LIST	45
BIBLIOGRAPHY	48
Appendix A: The Teams	53
Members of the Research Team	53
Members of the Participatory Action Team	53
Pictures of the Team in Action	54
Example of a Typical Meeting of the Participatory Action Team	55
Appendix B: Example of Traumatic Events	57
Appendix C: Research Questions	58
Appendix D: Questionnaires Used as Interview Guides	59
Questionnaire for women who have experienced traumatic stress	59
Questionnaire for non-physician mental health professionals	59
Questionnaire for physicians	59